When WS Gilbert & Arthur Sullivan first wrote their operettas they were exciting and always topical, constantly revised to make them relevant to their audience.

This brand new version of their most favourite, The Mikado, will have all the much loved songs, Tit Willow,

The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring, The Sun Whose Rays, Behold the Lord High Executioner, I've Got a Little List, and many more.

What you will hear will be a very different style to the orchestration, bringing it more up-to-date for modern audiences. The story will remain the same with more topical references, pace and fun, and the scenery and costumes are more-or-less what you would expect to see in a traditional production.

We do hope you will all come and enjoy this brand new adaptation.

Make a date also for our future production:
