THE FULL MONTY

Adapted from the 1997 British film, the musical version takes the same story and transports us to the USA and shows six unemployed Buffalo steelworkers who are low on both cash and prospects.

They decide to present a strip act at a local club after seeing their wives and girlfriends enthusiasm for a touring company of the 'Chippendales'. As they prepare for the show, working through their fears, self-consciousness and anxieties, they overcome their inner demons and find strength in their camaraderie.

It is extremely well written, with both pathos and humour and some memorable music, and addresses issues not normally encountered on the musical stage. The musical had its world premiere at the Eugene O'Neill Theatre on October 26th, 2000, where it ran for 770 performances.

For a 'first' showing in this area, this show must not be missed. So come and join in the fun!
